

FOURTH GRADE GAZETTE

Gilbert Linkous Elementary School

Nov 11-15, 2019

Volume 7 Issue 13

The Interims are Coming, the Interims are Coming

Just as a reminder, per the GLE student handbook, all graded assignments must be completed in class. The only homework your students should have is reading, reviewing notes, XL and Reflex, and studying for tests.

Suggested Holiday/Winter book to

Read Aloud As a Family:

The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe, The Family Under the Bridge, The Polar Express, The Last Holiday Concert, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

Reading: Mrs. Hill

As we wrap up the first part of our non-fiction unit, students will complete a newspaper mini-project in class. Groups will also begin a book study within their small group. We will meet at least once a week during class to discuss the book they are reading. Next week, we will begin our biography unit. Students need to find a biography to read on their own, it can also be used towards their AR Goal. We will use these books to study the biography genre. "Who Was/Is" books are a great resource!

Science: Ms. Mullins

Kinetic and potential energy are our topics this week. There will be a quiz Thursday. Students should study their notes in their notebooks and textbook pages 34 - 35.

Math: Mrs. Pleasant:

We will be practicing 2 and 3 digit dividends with 1 digit divisors all week in preparation for the test on Friday, November 15. Please use JXL lessons on division as a review and practice, practice, practice.

If students are not fluent with multiplication and division facts this unit is 10x more difficult. Please include basic facts x and division in your study this week.

If you are on Twitter you can follow Mrs. P's Lizards @p_lizards for daily snapshots of fourth grade goings on.

Virginia Studies: Ms. Mullins

“Charters” Check! We’re checking to see what students have learned about charters. We will also be learning about the VA government system started in Jamestown, including burgesses, assembly, and legislative ability. The “Governor’s Council” and the “House of Burgesses” were the beginnings of our American government today. Ask your student about the “hundreds” Students will be making a timeline this week.
